GURU PUJA, SYDNEY

The most auspicious occasion of Guru Puja for the Greater Sydney Collective will be celebrated on Saturday 30th July, at Balmoral Village.

GURU PUJA
Saturday 30th July, 2pm
BALMORAL

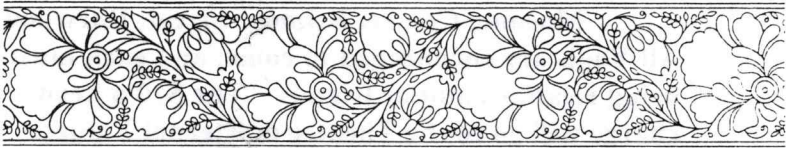

If you live only for yourself, then you have not expanded at all, you have not done your duty to the Guru. If you develop the Guru Tattwa, then the quality of wisdom is born. Wisdom is when you realise your mistakes and rectify them, then the balance comes. In the beginning the Guru principle is limited, then as you create more Sahaja Yogis, it goes on increasing its limitations like a horizon.

H.H. Shri Mataji Nirmala Devi
Guru Puja, Lago de Bries, 1989.

See you there.
Jai Shri Mataji!

Any ladies (or men) interested in offering ideas are invited to come and help this Saturday at 2pm.
There will be a meeting this Saturday 24.7.99 to discuss ideas as to the further sales possibilities of all the garments made up for us by Shri Mataji.

Shri Mataji's Fashion Collection
General Meeting.

Thank you,
Michael.

Marriage applications.
Would also those who are submitting applications for marriage, kindly let me have the two copies together with your State leader's report by the end of this month, so that they can be sent without delay whenever Shri Mataji calls for them.

Notification of participation.
When notifying Burwood Road Ashram (ph 02 9747 0310) that you are coming to Ganesha Puja, please also let them know when you will be arriving in Milan. If there are enough people arriving within close proximity of each other, we can organise coach transport to Cabella.
There are two airports in Milan: Malpensa, where the intercontinental flights (from America, Africa, Japan) arrive, and Linate, where the domestic and international (other cities in Europe) arrive.

COSMIC FAIRS

On Friday 8th & Saturday 9th we were invited to teach meditation at the Cosmic Psychic Fair at Hornsby RSL. The organisers were very happy to have Sahaja Yoga meditation participating and gave us a huge space for free. We had a lovely space in a bhandan of flowers in a very quiet area. The response was excellent with quality seekers and many children neceiving their Self Realisation. One group of 4 children who had been running around uncontrollably suddenly sat down in the chairs and asked for their Self Realisation. Afterwards they sat quietly in a corner and practised. They were heard telling their mum all about the cool breeze!

The organisers were so impressed with the meditation they have offered us a free space at any of their uncoming fairs and they said we were the most popular stall.

The next fairs will be at:-

ADI GURU DATTATREYA
Creation of Dattatreya

The sage Narada went to the Goddesses Saraswati, Lakshmi and Parvati saying that Anasuya, wife of Atri, was the most virtuous woman in any of the worlds. The Goddesses sent their husbands, Brahma, Vishnu and Shiva to test the piety of this woman.

Anasuya washed her husband's feet and then sprinkled the Gods, who were disguised as Brahmins, with this water. They were turned into babes. The three Gods deprived of the power to return to their original form, were trapped at her hermitage.

Saraswati, Lakshmi and Parvati came in search of their husbands, but he said she had some claim as she had nursed them so long. The Gods agreed to create a combined form with three heads and six arms if she released them.

This three headed divinity was named Dattatreya. The central head represents Vishnu, the right head represents Shiva and the other Brahma. The dogs which are depicted with Dattareya represent the perfect devotees, which are faithful to their master.

SAI NATH

"My master told me to give bounteously to all that ask. No one asks with wisdom. My treasury is open. No one brings carts to take away the real treasures. I say dig and search, but no one wants to take any pains. Be the true sons of the DIVINE MOTHER and fully stock yourself. What is to become of us. This body will return to earth and the air we breathe will melt into air. This opportunity will not return."

VIENNA BOYS CHOIR IN SYDNEY

Our brother, Gerald Wirth, is currently touring with his Vienna Boys Choir who will be performing several concerts this week in Sydney.

You will be familiar with his arrangement of the Binate Suniye sung by the Calgary Boys Choir while he was in Canada. You will be pleased to know that Binate Suniye is now a regular part of the Vienna Boys Choir Program (and others)!

For information, ring Ticketek in Sydney (not sure about other cities ticketing companies).

THE ENTERTAINMENT

Work has started on an entertainment:

a) to be presented on August 30th and 31st
at the hall attached to the Masonic Centre, Belmore Street, Burwood.

All Yogis are encouraged to come, and each must bring relations and/or friends. The $10 a head charge will go to the Theatre of Eternal Values. (Incidently, we have already contributed $A8,000. In a recent Newsletter TEV acknowledged contributions of $10,000. If this was in $US it means Australia contributed over half!)

b) From our entertainment
we hope to compose our contribution to Shri Mataji's
Shri Ganesha Puja Concert at Cabella.

So, will all Yogis planning to go to Cabella for Ganesha Puja please contact 9747 0310.
The earlier the rehearsals start the more relaxed and productive the creative process will be.
We will need to involve most, if not all, of the yogis going to Cabella.
So could decisions be made and shared soon!
Very soon!

RAJA JANAKA

There is a beautiful story told by Shri Mataji about Raja Janaka:
"You know, King Janaka was called as `Videha'. Great sage Narada asked him one day, "Revered Sir, how are you called as Videha, you live in this world how can you be a Videha?"
Raja Janaka said, "This is very simple. I will tell you about it in the evening. Now, please do this little job for me. There is milk in this bowl. You take this bowl and come along with me. Please see that not a single drop of milk is spilled on the earth. Then only I will tell you why I am called Videha."

Narada took the bowl and followed Janaka everywhere. He had to be very careful because the bowl was such, that by the slightest movement the milk might have spilled. He got quite tired. When they retired for the evening, Narada asked, `Please tell me now. I am getting quite fed up with carrying this bowl and following you everywhere at the same time.'

Raja Janaka said, `First of all tell me what you have seen?'
Narada: `Nothing except this bowl of milk so that it won't spill.'
Raja Janaka said, Didn't you see there was a big procession in my honour, then there was a court wherein there was the programme of dancing? Didn't you see anything?'

Narada: `No Sir, I have not seen anything.'
Raja Janaka: `My Child, likewise with me, I also see nothing. All the time, I just watch my attention. Where is it going? Making sure that it won't spill away like the milk.'

Explaining Chitta-nirodha, Shri Mataji said, "This sort of attention one has to develop by watching attention. Chitta-Nirodh. Nirodh means the saving of your attention. So your attention should not be on saving money and worldly things and all that, but attention itself must be saved. As you watch your money, as you watch your road when you drive, as you watch your child when it is growing, as you watch the beauty of your wife, or the care of your husband - all put together you watch yourself; your attention."

Just as Shri Mataji has stressed the importance of sincerity in Sahaja Yoga, for example, the necessity of singing and praying with love from the heart, so also Confucius says;

"Sincerity is that by which self-completion is finished. The possessor of sincerity does not merely accomplish completion of himself, with this quality he completes other men."

This quotation takes an added significance when it is considered in the light of Sahaja Yoga; an open, sincere heart facilitates the Kundalini's passage up the Sushumna nadi.
