In Sahaja Yoga, to worry about anything is not Sahaj. Because it is the Param Chaitanya that does the worrying. We should have only one worry. That I should be in meditation. I should be in joy and there should be no lacking in this joy. And I may always be carefree.

Dear Yogis,

In response to suggestions from other ethnic Chinese Yogis in South East Asia, the Hong Kong collective is producing a Chinese language Newsletter. If you have any Chinese yogi's in your collective who would be interested in receiving the newsletter it will include transcripts of Shri Mataji's talks and contributions from yogis (translated into Chinese) from around the world. Everyone is welcome to contribute articles, photos, artwork or relevant materials on Sahaja Yoga. We hope that it will help work out Sahaja Yoga in China by bringing the collective attention among all Chinese from around the world together. For collectives with many Chinese yogis we will send a master copy to the leader or coordinator who can then arrange to copy and distribute the newsletter. For all those interested they can send an email to: smtech@hkstar.com.

Please put this in your attention, bandhan and shoebeat, to help make the newsletter a useful tool for spreading Sahaja Yoga in Mainland China.

Love from the Hong Kong collective.

Subject: Bergen fair in Norway

Dear brothers and sisters.

Sahaja Yoga has been running regularly for two and a half years and we have a little collective in Oslo. About 10 people are coming and it seems that we are growing slowly but steadily. In these few years here in Norway we have been attending some alternative fairs where a lot of people receive their Realisation. We would like to inform you about a fair that we will be attending in February in Bergen. There are some very strong yogis there and we need the collective strength for the working out of this very beautiful place.

Please put your attention on Bergen and Norway. We are weak on the collective level. The Norwegians have a strong 'guru principle', but together with ego and damage from the false gurus, people stay at home not necessarily feeling the need for collectivity. Even if we do know that we cannot do it alone, we have mr. lethargy and the 'dark season' to tempt with absence. Please give bandhans and shoebeat the negativity attacking the seekers of such a blessed country.

We had a fair last time in Oslo and three or four people are still attending the course. We were thrilled last monday when 13 people came, such a joy to have such nice and genuine people to share the vibrations with. If you feel any desire to come for the fair in Bergen it is in Grieghallen in Bergen on the 5. to the 7th of February, be 'super welcome' and please let us know.

With much love from your brothers and sisters in Norway.
