

NOTE All these flights require a train journey back to Delhi.
There is no connecting flight back to Brisbane! It might be more convenient to fly out of Sydney.
It is proposed to book sleeper berths from Bombay to Delhi.
We need to book sleeper berths 60 days prior to travel.
Any one going to Ganapathipule only will have to fly Qantas/air India.
Their travel will be at the peak peak time so it is imperative that bookings are made urgently!! Those who travelled late last year will tell you that some left at 8 hours notice!!!
